Troops for Montana

NEW YORK June 13 —One hundred recruits from Fort Columbus, New York Harbor have been ordered to Fort Shaw, Montana, for assignment to the Seventh Infantry

The British Feeling in Regard to the Treaty.

NEW YORK June 13 —The Times' London special says that the position of the Government on the treaty creates great political excitement The Government believes the treaty is not dead It is rumored that a vote of a want of confidence in the Ministry is to be moved in Parliament by Disraeli or Bouverie—probably by the latter—but if so, it cannot be carried The general expectation is that there will be an adjournment of the Geneva Conference

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

Additional News Concerning the Treaty

LONDON June 13 —In the House of Commons this afternoon Horsman gave notice that he would soon ask Gladstone whether the documents to be presented to Parliament relative to the Alabama claims would explain why no record had been kept of the proceedings of the Joint High Commission and so if they contain any document wherein the American Government assents to a withdrawal of the indirect claims as a matter of understanding and not of agreement

Persian Famine

[illegible] June 13 —Papers represent the famine in Persia as worse than ever

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO June 14 —In the matter of the death of a two years old child of H Bernstein from being run over by a street car on Sixth street while the car was temporarily in charge of the driver only, the conductor having got off for supper the Coroner's jury divided the responsibility censuring the parents for allowing a child of that age to be running in the street exposed to such danger acquitting the driver of any responsibility and blaming the company for permitting a car to be left in charge of a driver alone at any time

His [illegible] the Commissioner Bosenfe[illegible] to [illegible] the East last night

The [illegible] frigate H[illegible] sailed for Europe in the night A number of her crew were finally left behind

The colored population of the city have commenced raising a purse to employ counsel to legally test the question of the right of negro children to enter the public schools on terms of perfect equality with white children There appears to be a decided repugnance on their part to allowing the separate colored schools to be maintained

Weather damp cloudy and cool

Stocks remain quiet but those of eastern Nevada are generally firm and in some cases a little higher

If the Democrats are fools enough to vote for Greeley says the Marshall Michigan Expounder we feel as if we might just as well be fool enough to vote for Grant

A Romance

[illegible]

[illegible]

O[illegible] here How s[illegible] He was [illegible] He had a laughter [illegible] real manid to [illegible] She was [illegible] bright that when sleeping [illegible] of the future she always started rainbows [illegible] for longs ahead She wore long [illegible] too for she was [illegible] She was sweeter than ten custard pies eight barrels of sugar and [illegible] pounds of gum drops [illegible] She was so sweet that she ate ripe peaches for pickles and so bright that she had to carry a sunshade in the house to keep from putting the rest of the family's eyes out and scorching the [illegible] Ye gods a female like that made out of cast iron scoured once a week and put upon an umbrella stand would be [illegible] She had a lover It was a man He knew that her coffee had never been sweetened with the lessons of adversity and he knew in his inmost soul that it was diluted with the milk of human kindness [illegible] how that man did love that female But the path of true love never did run smooth and he got stuck in a mud puddle before he got half way over it as follows

A robust man of crimson hue saw this female To see was to gaze and to gaze was to love He swore an inward swear that she should be his even though he had to take her father out clamming with him and dump him overboard, and though he had to shoot his rival with a wine bottle loaded with gray shot

THE [illegible]

Twas night A real warm couple stood in the pale cold moonbeams Their lips touched and there was a sound like a cow hauling its hoof out of the mud A female voice said Alfred dear Alf remember at seven to morrow night precisely or I will never forgive you She wanted to go to the circus He said Fannie dear Fan I will be there

In the shade of a tree stood the man who was to knock this circus business endways As they parted he said Aha twice then dashed into the thickening gloom After he had dashed into the thickening gloom he dashed after his rival cuss He followed him to his home He raised the window and he stole his boots He took those boots home and then and there he perpetrated a crime unparalleled in the annals of history He deliberately took a Saddle Rock banana skin and he half soled and heeled those boots with that banana skin

Twas night The golden stars were winking at each other (above you will see the stars) The moon was showing her man to an admiring world Grasshoppers had grasshopped for the last time that day The bull frogs were singing their evening hymns and the cats were warbling their evening hims too Nothing was working save the empty ings in the buckwheat cake jar

A young female, dressed to kill, stood leaning against a door post She was wringing her hands and yelling Cruel, cruel work Far better had she been at her crochet, crochet work The grease on her golden locks would have brought ten cents for soap fat Only have stuck a wick into it and she d have been a candle She was wicked enough without it A shadow stole across her path Twas a he shadow It said ahem She shemmed back for she owned a patent hemmer It advanced stealthily and exclaimed Why, Fannie! She advanced with a cat like tread and ejaculated, 'Why Doc' (it was a dry doc) She spoke one minute—subject, the instability of man—then they both crooked elbows and glided into the thickening gloom This makes three in the thickening gloom

A form—a male form—approaching It slides and slips and shuffles along tumbling over lamp-posts and mackerel barrels Doc says to Fannie See there look! look! alas how drunk She shrunk back and clutched Doc's arms more closely, and then exclaimed Tis taint taint tis my long lost Alfred Yes and drunk as thunder [illegible] Doc

Twas night again Alfred was being kicked off the stoop by Doc and Miss Fannie's father assisted by Miss Fannie A few months after Doc led his blushing bride with a string of blushing bridesmaids to the blushing altar Then he took her to her new home a bran new house with a tank of water on the top that held a thousand gallons

A DEADLY REVENGE

Time rolled on without wheels Months flew by without wings Alf thought his legs had gin out Three tumbles to a yard was his gait the only gait to a yard he owned One day he sat upon the grass plot bemoaning his sad fate when a goat—they call em billy goats because they eat handbills—sent by some fairy hand approached and chewed all the bottoms of his boots off and on arising he found himself restored to health He swore to be avenged for these banana skins He dressed himself in the disguise of his lost love's uncle He visited her one cold blasty night He was invited to make her house his home till morning In the dead of night he arose He drew forth a large auger and he stood upon a table and bored through the wall vertical right into that awful tank of water With one wild shriek which was its last the pent up waters rushed forth, and drowned the whole kit and kaboodle of em Not a vestige of the house remains and I have just been around to see it

Is that all? I asked the Toledo man
He said it was

GREAT RAIN STORM A Chicago dispatch of June 8 says The rain storm which prevailed throughout Central Illinois on Thursday and Thursday night was one of the most severe ever experienced in that region flooding the whole country and doing immense damage to roads railroads and crops drowning hundreds of head of livestock and in the river and creek bottoms sweeping away houses barns fences etc Great damage was done to all railroads running through Central Illinois the Chicago Burlington and Quincy road having several miles of track washed away and a great number of bridges and culverts destroyed The Toledo Peoria and Western also suffered greatly and on the Quincy and Alton Railroad which runs for about thirty miles on the Mississippi river bottom no trains have passed since Thursday morning The upheaval [illegible] Peoria [illegible] Fulton Hancock Schuyler Adams Brown and their [illegible] in what is known as the military tract nearly every bridge is swept away The Illinois river is overflowed and a singular result of the immense volume of water poured into it from the creeks is that at Peoria 200 miles above the mouth the current of the river is changed and is running northward The amount of loss it is impossible to estimate but it doubtless will reach many hundred thousand dollars

Major Powell's exploring party have found new evidences among the canyons of Colorado of the existence of a pre historic people High up on top of the cliffs overhanging deep chasms and down amid the desolate valleys some of these traces have been found indicating great antiquity Human bones and pieces of pottery portions of which must have been houses and other traces of early inhabitants are among the discoveries

The Gallant Female Colonel

Tennie C Claflin was elected, last night, Colonel of the Eighty seventh regiment

The President Interviewed.

President Grant in an interview with a correspondent at Long Branch said he presumed Spain would surrender Dr Howard, whose release was demanded by this Government, although the course to be pursued in case of a refusal of Spain to do so is a matter which has not at all been discussed by the Cabinet He thinks it an even chance whether the Baltimore Convention will nominate Greeley but hopes it will in order that the fight be an open one between the two

Miscellaneous Eastern News

MILWAUKEE June 14 —The Democratic State Convention met here yesterday and elected delegates to the Baltimore Convention It adopted resolutions endorsing the Cincinnati platform and Greeley's letter of acceptance, and instructing delegates to Baltimore to ratify the action of the Cincinnati Convention and vote as a unit Strong opposition was made to the resolution several speakers denouncing the coalition with the Cincinnati movement as death to the Democratic party

PHILADELPHIA June 14 —By the falling of a stack at the West Conshohocken furnace yesterday fifteen persons are reported to have been killed and wounded

Wilson's Letter of Acceptance.

WASHINGTON June 14 —Senator Wilson's letter of acceptance is published this morning After giving assurance of his grateful appreciation of the honor conferred upon him he recalled the Philadelphia Convention of 1856, and the changes which have taken place in public sentiment since the growth of freedom from Republican principles and points out where the representatives of an oppressed and despised race of sixteen years since, now participates in terms of perfect equality in the convention, and though they were scarcely less despised than were Abolitionists of 1856, they are now greeted with the warmest demonstrations of popular regard and esteem He concludes by saying I gratefully accept the nomination thus tendered and shall endeavor, if it shall be ratified by the people, faithfully to perform the duties it imposes '

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

In Parliament at London.

LONDON June 14 —In the House of Commons last night Mr Gladstone stated, in reply to a question by Corrance that the Government had received nothing official in relation to the San Juan boundary question now before the Emperor of Germany for arbitration In answer to an inquiry by Ibbetson the Premier said the U S Government had declined to join the British Government in an application for an adjournment of the Geneva Board

Viscount Bury inquired as to the truth of the statement that the American Government would oppose any effort of the British Government to submit its arguments to the Geneva Board on the 25th inst under protest If true, how was it about the reserved rights of England

Mr Gladstone declined to answer without the usual notice

The New York Times says

The Tribune has discovered that the bill to renew the portion of the Ku Klux Act, giving the President authority to suspend the habeas corpus in certain cases, was meant to put into the President's hands "a sword to gain re-election," "an iniquitous attempt to gag and fetter a people just beginning to [illegible] its freedom of speech and action," "a bill for keeping the South under military rule for political purposes," This has the genuine Democratic ring about it. It is [illegible] the language used by the rebel Democratic [illegible], when the original bill was brought in. But Mr Greeley's paper should be the last to employ it. Less than a year ago, Mr Greeley said of this measure 'I hold our Government bound by its duty of protecting our citizens in their fundamental rights, to pass and enforce laws for the extirpation of the execrable Ku Klux conspiracy, and if it has not the power to do it, then I say our Government is no Government, but a sham I, therefore, on every proper occasion, advocated and justified the Ku Klux Act. I held it especially desirable for the South ; and if it does not prove strong enough to effect its purpose I hope it will be made stronger and stronger Then Mr Greeley was not soliciting Ku Klux votes "

BANKRUPT LAW CHANGES —The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia [illegible], May 28th, says

The bill which passed the House to-day amending and revising the general Bankruptcy Act, makes several important changes in the existing statute The term during which bankrupts may be discharged upon payment of fifty per cent. of their indebtedness is extended until July 1, 1873, life insurance policies to the amount of $5,000 are exempt from assets available for creditors, and all judgments obtained against parties or property before petitions in bankruptcy are filed are to be first and fully satisfied. One of the most important of the new provisions is that in reference to the appointment of registers and minor officers in bankruptcy, which brings the law fully within the provisions of the Constitution the present system of giving this power to the Chief Justice and various judges of the United States courts having been devised as a partisan expedient in Andrew Johnson's time

FARM LABOR IN ENGLAND —The farmers in England are beginning to give way before the bold stand made by the laborers They have raised wages from eleven and twelve shillings per week to fourteen and fifteen shillings, but the Laborers Union still demand sixteen shillings and the farmers will probably have to give way as labor is very scarce, hundreds of men having left the agricultural districts for the towns and the coal and iron districts A conference between the laborers and the farmers is shortly to be held, at which the subject will be fully discussed, and it is hoped some terms will be arrived which will be accepted by masters and men throughout England The movement among the laborers has assumed the most serious dimensions, and unless something be done the farmers will be in a very awkward position at harvest time

The Cincinnati Commercial fresh from the receipt by telegraph of all that Stedman rhymes and Whitman conceives, says A shocking item is communicated by our London correspondent An Englishman has returned to London after an absence in New Zealand of thirty years, and brings a completed poem of fourteen thousand lines We hope the Associated Press will not get hold of it

SATURDAY MORNING JUNE [illegible] 1872

An Organ's Malice and Duplicity

If the people [illegible] on [illegible] red [illegible] the [illegible] an [illegible] paper published among [illegible] in the State [illegible] very little con[illegible] nee. Th[illegible] article [illegible] that [illegible] all [illegible] is [illegible] a [illegible] here [illegible] the State [illegible] and business to sustain such great enterprises [illegible] and that [illegible] in any [illegible] there is no need of a [illegible] the Wallamet river after the locks are completed [illegible] the business [illegible] than railroads can possibly do [illegible] those who have purchased [illegible] railway bonds that they have made a [illegible] and will lose their money and by necessary inference it cautions these [illegible] and others seeking investments to [illegible] more Oregon railway bonds and to be wary about putting their money into enterprises in [illegible] poor and sparsely populated a country as Oregon. This is in a paper which has a standing motto at its head "We Advocate the Interests of Oregon —Progress." Strange advocacy of Oregon's interests [illegible] the progress that such advocacy leads to is the progress of the crab —progress backwards.

With a view of injuring Oregon railway securities so as to gratify a [illegible] spite even at the expense of the highest interest of the State the unprincipled sheet in question says that after the locks are completed "the railroads will get none of the products of the valley to transport." The person who asserts this will be scouted here as a simpleton or held guilty of intentional misrepresentation. For all the people of Oregon know that for most of the year the Wallamet river cannot be navigated to any good purpose above the mouth of the Yamhill. Completion of the locks will not deepen the upper Wallamet. The river will be little better fitted for transportation of the products of the country after the locks are completed than heretofore, for the greatest difficulty has not been at the Falls but in the shoals, bars and rapids above. All the freight that could be brought down from the upper river has always been passed over the Falls without difficulty and at little expense. The trouble has been that boats could not run above the Falls, and this will in no respect be obviated by the completion of the locks. Last fall all the products of the country within reach of the railroads were brought out and sold at good prices. Those who relied on river transportation had to wait till far in the winter before there was water enough for the boats to run and when, at last, their wheat was reached the market was flat. So much better is the certainty of railway transportation than dependence on a river which cannot be navigated only when it chances to be full.

Besides the cost of running boats on the upper Wallamet is so great that river transportation can never supersede transportation by rail. Above the Falls, that stream, when full (and boats can run only when it is full) is a furious torrent. Wear and tear of boats is excessive. A boat will last for only five years service, running less than half of each year. These are practical facts. The farmers of Wallamet valley and the mercantile community have experienced for many years the disadvantages of a reliance of river navigation, and have always regarded railroads as a necessity. The Umpqua region will depend wholly on railway transportation.

The position which the Herald takes is simply the absurd position of a journal which is actuated by a blind malice toward the railway interests of the country, and is willing to do all it possibly can to injure the credit of these enterprises abroad, out of partisan spite and rancor. With this end in view it cares neither for consistency or truth, but convicts itself of duplicity and inveracity. If what it said before the election were true, what it is saying now cannot possibly be so. When it arg[illegible] at great length to show that there is not p[illegible]ulation and business here to support rail[illegible], and cannot be for many years, and then adds that our railroads will be speedily built and succ[illegible]fully operated if they can only be got out of the hands that now control them it proves its own utter want of the sound principles of honesty, truth and [illegible], which alone can entitle a public journal to [illegible] ce and respect.

"You Pays Your Money and Takes Your Choice."

It is astonishing to witness with what facility the Herald can set up a "king" and then dethrone him. In former issues of that paper we were told that Ben Holladay was a man of mighty capital, of vast financial ability and great business sagacity. He was called a "king," and was greatly magnified. But by just as much as that paper then magnified, it is now trying to deprecate his importance. In its issue of April 23d it said:

> We are daily reminded of what he is doing for the State how he is building up our interests how he is, by his enterprise, inviting population and what wonderful enterprise he displays. All this is, to a very large extent, true. We are by no means blind to all these considerations.

The same paper which contained this is now spending columns of its space to prove that the man whom it lauded so highly is of no account. It declares that he is an incubus upon and a detriment to the State that he stands in the way of its progress and prosperity, and that he must be "shoved aside." Of the man whose "wonderful enterprise" it spoke so highly only a few weeks ago it now says:

> He is to-day a source of hindrance [illegible] her than affording a facility, in the completion of our railroads.

Valuable opinions, truly! Unless the signs are all at fault, an organ wants to be "brought round," and is waiting for a bid. It is not forgotten how five hundred dollars set it all right on the Locks question.

WHO SENT RACKERBY?—This question troubles the Californians about as much as the source from which Jasper Johnson got his credentials to the Cincinnati Convention. It will be remembered that Rockerby and Jasper represented California and Oregon in the Cincinnati Convention. The Chronicle of San Francisco says in a late issue:

> Now, here is a brave chance for the Greeley Club. A telegram to the Chronicle announces that William Rackerby will arrive overland to-night. Let the Greeleyites turn out with fife and drum to receive the great Liberal. Let Pixley welcome him, and the Club [illegible] him. We hope there will be a serenade, for we greatly desire to see Mr Rackerby in the midst of his compatriots explaining to them who really did send him to Cincinnati.

By the habitual rascality which [illegible] practiced in Wasco county, Mr Moody Republican Senator elect has been "counted out." This is the third time in succession that this game has been played in Wasco. Mr Moody has a majority of the legal votes of the county as he will be able to show. We learn that he will contest. Fortunately the Senate is now so constituted that on a fair showing he will be able to get the seat.

The Albany Farming Journal very pertinently remarks that Mr Greeley has said a thousand things which return to plague him now with crushing force. In an address before the Agricultural Society of Trumbull county, Ohio, [illegible] he said:

> [illegible] than I [illegible] to run against Gen Grant for President [illegible] were called upon to decide between Grant and [illegible] If I know that [illegible] they must call [illegible] would induce me [illegible] Why I am a decided enemy of that party, even in its [illegible]

Mr Greeley spoke then like a sensible man. He hit the nail squarely on the head. He had not been badly stung by the [illegible] in his old [illegible] that [illegible] and saw the absurdity of the suggestion, but it was no more absurd [illegible] than now and Democrats are just as certain to vote against [illegible] now as they were then. Greeley has exactly described his Democratic candidacy in the above words.

Never were the acts of an Administration subjected to so searching a scrutiny as have been those of President Grant and never did they more successfully stand the test. A dozen investigations have taken place covering a wide range of administrative work and all have failed to sustain a single charge or to fasten a single damaging fact. The one which was inaugurated with the greatest flourish of trumpets—the inquiry into the sale of the French arms—ended like all the rest in the overwhelming discomfiture of its originators. But it is well that these investigations have taken place. They were contemptible in their origin but they are fortunate in their results. They have served to demonstrate at once the pettiness of the assault upon the Administration and the impregnability of its record. All the guns in the arsenal of the opposition have been spiked before the campaign is fairly opened.

The office of a Councilman in our city is somewhat important and to secure good men it is important that the Republicans turn out this evening at the Ward meetings and express their preference in the choice of candidates. We trust that there will be a full attendance of the Republican voters at the several ward conventions, and that such a ticket will be selected as will receive the unanimous vote of the party in the city. Republicans should not let these nominating conventions go by default.

The Statesman refers once more to the necessity of an appropriation for the erection of a State Capitol building at Salem. Such an appropriation ought to be made. The people of Marion county are in error in supposing that Portland desires the removal of the Capital. The members from Multnomah county we are sure will favor any proper bill for a Capitol appropriation.

A short time ago the Herald in an article on its favorite topic, said:

> We have never attacked this man's business we have not stooped to such meanness.

By this time, we suppose you will admit that you have "stooped to such meanness." You have given your own conduct a very proper characterization.

All honest men agree that one of the earliest measures which should pass the Legislature is the repeal of the iniquitous Litigant law. Such organs as the Herald have profited by that swindle already much too long.

We hear that Mr Cochran will contest the right of Mr Myers to the seat in the Senate for Clackamas county, being satisfied that he can prove that a large number of illegal votes were thrown for the latter.

THE TERRITORIES

Much land in Cowlitz county is being preempted at the Land Office.

The Freeport mill caught fire on the 5th inst, but it was promptly put out.

The steamer Zephyr will hereafter not touch at Tulalip on her down Sound trips.

A M Jackson, of Umatilla is on the way to Olympia with 361 fat sheep, for British Columbia.

A District Court will convene for the first time at Oysterville on the 1st of July. Judge Green presiding.

Mr Winship Lighthouse Inspector, from San Francisco, arrived at Seattle on the steamer [illegible] which took in a load of coal at Seattle.

Extraordinary efforts are making to decorate Seattle for the Fourth, and to make a display ahead of anything ever known in the Territory.

The ship Tranio Alba[illegible] Captain L B Lund, sailed for Valparaiso Chili, on June 11th from Port Blakely with 533 000 feet of lumber valued at $6,250.

Mr Conkling's house on the Duwamish, Washington Territory was burnt down on the 6th instant. Loss about $800. He is already building another.

A detachment of fifteen mounted men from Fort Lapwai left on an expedition to reconnoiter the country north of Lewiston and will be absent nearly all summer.

In Clarke county Washington Territory the crops are extremely promising and the yield will be heavy if the country is not again inundated by the waters of the Columbia before harvest.

Six new houses have been built on the road from [illegible] to J B Cooks on Camas prairie Washington Territory and farms are being rapidly taken up in that section of the country.

Seven vessels are now loading at Port Gamble for China, San Francisco and South America with an aggregate of [illegible] 000 feet of lumber. Four more are on the way thither to take a million and a half more.

The California Gold and Silver Mining Company has just been organized under the laws of California with its chief place of business in San Francisco to work what is known as the Whisky quartz mine, located on the east side of Jordan creek a short distance above Silver City Idaho Territory.

The Idaho Statesman complains that parties belonging to Washington Territory, who reside on the lower Palouse have taken large contracts for delivering lumber and timber and are now cutting and building large quantities on the Idaho side of the line in violation of law and damaging to the settlers in Idaho.

By order of the President dated April 9 1872 the territory lying immediately east of the Columbia river bounded north and east by Clark's Fork of said river and the east boundary line of Washington Territory and on the south by the Spokane river has been set apart for Indian purposes and therefore not subject to settlement or sale.

In the published proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars we find the following:

> The Finance Committee reported that the probable expenses of the coming year of this Grand Lodge would be $3,45[illegible] to meet which there would be about $3,839 received. Further reported that the salary of the Secretary be $500 per annum; that the per capita tax from subordinate Lodges remain as heretofore; that lecturers be employed and work under the direction of the G W C T. The report was adopted.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Major Dela Hunt, of the Cannelton Ind Reporter died recently and his wife became its editor. He had made it a strong Democratic paper but under her management it is now uncompromisingly for Grant.

The Chicago Post informs Mr Greeley that there is [illegible] very merino sheep in America [illegible] [illegible] justice [illegible] at all.

The Bangor [illegible] Hon Wm H M Gillis [illegible] in [illegible] and [illegible] the last [illegible] Congress.

The quality of the whisky consumed by a Democratic editor may easily be judged from the style of his editorials. When he swallows a [illegible] quantity of a cheap article of lightning, he is apt to assume a laughable air of [illegible] and [illegible] his neighbors as liars, thieves and blackguards.

Garibaldi is growing old very fast. He now can walk only with the help of crutches. His fingers are distorted by rheumatism and he looks as if he never again would be able to leave his residence except in a litter. He is still cheerful in spite of his crippled state and his face has preserved its fresh color and good expression.

The [illegible] has a letter from Illinois reviewing the recent Republican State Convention, and conceding that "the Germans will probably support the ticket as a rule." The writer has evidently little hope that Illinois can be carried by the coalition. In fact all accounts go to show that it is entirely safe for a large Republican majority.

A French paper, in commenting on the national subscription for the payment of the debt of Germany notices among other things that General Trochu has contributed his plan; Jules Favre his tears; Jules Simon his portfolio; Glais Bizoin his head; Louis Blanc one of his books; M Arago a hurrah; Victor Hugo his cap; Dufaure his resignation; and Ferry a Washington dispatch.

Senator Alcorn authorizes a denial of the statement that he intends, in company with Governor Powers of Alabama, to canvass Mississippi for Mr Greeley. The only speeches he will make he says will be in support of the Philadelphia candidate and he believes the same to be true in the case of Governor Powers. He does not believe Mr Greeley's election would be a triumph for reform but on the contrary that it would be a public disaster.

The base drum for the Boston jubilee in 1869 was a child's plaything when compared with the one just completed at Farmington Falls Me, for this year's festivity. The diameter of the first one was 8 feet; that of this monster is 12 feet, while its circumference is 37 feet and 8 inches and its width 5 feet. It is made of maple, requires 12 boards each 15 feet long and 13 inches wide and contains 197 square feet of timber. It is the largest drum in the world and was taken from the factory only by tearing away a part of the building.

The report of the Committee on Plans of the Centennial Commission recommends that ten architects be selected to prepare the preliminary plans of the buildings who are to be paid one thousand dollars each. Ten other prizes, of one thousand dollars each are to be paid to other architects for sketches or drawings while six of the most meritorious are to be selected from the twenty plans to be awarded the following prizes: $15 000 for the first; $10 000 for the second; $6 000 for the third; $4,000 for the fourth; $3,000 for the fifth and $2 000 for the sixth.

Alluding to the President's letter, read at the civil rights meeting in Washington, Fred Douglass says in the New National Era: "We entirely misapprehend the character of the colored citizens, North and South if they do not accept this letter as the fullest assurance that so far as General Grant is concerned they are certain to have their just and equal rights, whenever those rights can be secured to them by law. Abraham Lincoln said and did many good things while he was President of the United States, but nothing like this letter ever came to colored men even from him."

The Philadelphia Press says there are but five Republican papers in Pennsylvania favorable to Greeley, and all of these are rural papers of limited circulation and influence. Of the Democratic papers, only one flies the Greeley banner, and the great bulk earnestly protest against his endorsement. In the strong Democratic counties the organs threaten to bolt before swallowing the Greeley pill. The Press concludes that the Greeley ticket has no strength in that State and says "the Republicans are as united and harmonious on the question of the Presidency as at any period of their history."

New Mexico has a cheerful religious society which holds very queer views of the duties of life, views which might be considered by some people a little out of place in the nineteenth century. Its members call themselves "Penitents" and it is mentioned as an illustration of the character of their observances that at the annual celebration recently held at Tecolote, one of the members died from the loss of blood, caused by the whipping to which he had subjected himself. Indeed they habitually vie with each other in the shocking severity of self imposed penances which mostly consist in barbarous mutilation of their bodies and cruel whippings. There ought to be law enough in New Mexico to suppress such goings on.

There is now performing at a Berlin theater a remarkable play founded on the story of the Chicago conflagration. After several acts devoted entirely to red fire harrowing incidents and fearful conflagrations of historical and geographical points the fire is ended by the Prussian Consul rushing upon the stage mounting the engine and waving the red white and black flag of Deutschland. This is supposed to revive the well nigh exhausted energies of those who are fighting against the flames and striking up "Wacht am der Rhine" they again attack the flames and are of course victorious. Appreciative Berlin flocks to see this play and implicitly believes that the Chicago fire was extinguished in precisely the manner indicated.

France has given a new point to the old liberal adage that "Republics are ungrateful" by disgracing through a court martial, and retiring from the military service General Ulrich, defender of Strasburg. It is alleged that evidence was forthcoming before the court martial which satisfied its members that Ulrich had surrendered the city and citadel of Strasburg before the necessity actually existed. If the accounts current at the time of the terrible effects of the bombardment of the city by the Germans were true the defence of Strasburg was one of the most gallant and protracted in military annals. But now Ulrich, at that time celebrated for his heroic conduct, is pronounced guilty of malfeasance and, so far as the verdict of a court martial can disgrace him before the French people has been disgraced.

Some of the German papers at home are puzzled to comprehend the action of the Cincinnati Convention. The Berlin Zeitung after remarking that Greeley is an extreme protectionist inquires: "How could the German free traders who were among the earliest advocates of the Liberal Republican movement, permit this nomination?" And was it the intention of the managers of the Convention to offer a deliberate insult to the German voters by asking them to support a man who, in his journal, has incessantly preached the crudest theories on what people ought to eat and drink and who was the secret enemy of Abraham Lincoln, whose memory is so dear to the German heart.

CITY.

IRON ORE DISCOVERED.—Capt. Joseph Kellogg, who has the superintendence of the work now being prosecuted by the Oswego and Tualatin River Canal Company, placed on our table yesterday, a specimen of iron ore which has been taken out of the excavation for the canal. The ore was taken from the canal about midway between the upper end of the Lake and the Tualatin river. It is, on a direct line from Oswego, a little less than three miles. In the progress of the work on the canal, after descending to a depth of about 18 inches, a red sticky clay was reached, which appeared as if it had been subjected to fire, and indicated by its character the presence of iron. The workmen supposed that it was nothing but an ordinary bed of red clay, and continued to "skim" along near the surface, in marking out the course of the canal. After proceeding in this manner for the distance of near a half mile, the hands went back to where work had just been begun and commenced to excavate for the second course. Digging down through the supposed clay, they came to a solid rock-like substance, which on examination proved to be iron ore. The lode was penetrated for a depth of two feet. The ore continued to improve in richness as the distance from the surface increased. At the distance indicated from the surface of the lode, there was no appearance of the ore being exhausted. How much further the lode extended, there was no determining. Capt. Kellogg prospected in different directions from the canal to ascertain as far as possible the extent of the vein. About the same distance from the surface of the soil the same clay was found, and following that strata came the lode. The specimen before us was broken from near the top of the vein, and consequently is not so rich with the metal as if taken from the center. It has been shown to a competent man who has long been connected with one of the leading foundries of the city and is acquainted with the different kinds of iron in use. He pronounces the ore of a richer quality than the ore taken from either the Prosser or [illegible] lodes, which are both contiguous to the [illegible] at Oswego. The canal leads directly through the lode, and when that work is completed the ore can be shoveled into boats and floated down the canal to the lake, across that body of water, and through another canal to the river, where the works now stand, with but little trouble or expense.

FIRE AT VANCOUVER.—A fire visited the town of Vancouver about 7 o'clock P. M., on Thursday last. A dwelling house owned by a Mr. Battesby was discovered to be on fire in the evening by the [illegible] of the family. The house at the present stage of the river, is surrounded by water. The conjecture is that fire was about the premises, and smoke was seen to issue in volumes from under the sidewalk in front of the house, which projects out over the water. The alarm was given at once, but before the fire department could arrive on the ground, the house, from foundation to roof, was enveloped in flames. Great exertions were put forth by the firemen, to save the building, but without success. Those who held the hose were obliged to stand in the cold water up to their waists for over half an hour. By the most strenuous efforts a building, which was separated from the burning house by a few feet was saved, and the Alta House, lately enlarged and thoroughly refitted by Jos. Knott, of this city, was also rescued from a similar fate. The last building escaped with a very slight loss—the exterior blackened by the cinders, and the paint blistered. Nothing could have prevented its destruction but the constant exertions of the fire companies. The loss of Mr. Battesby's house places that gentleman and his family in a condition of absolute destitution. There are six small children to support, and Mr. B. is but a day laborer. His wife did on a laundry business, but the fire swept away everything in the way of clothing. Not a piece of garment was saved. Numbers of other persons who had clothing in the wash, sustained serious losses. The entire loss will be in the vicinity of $1,000. The people of Vancouver propose to take up a subscription for the benefit of the destitute family.

CRUELTY.—Our celestial friends are generally characteristic for habits of economy and industry. Occasionally a case of cruelty is developed among them; but they are usually a compassionate race of people. One of the worst shortcomings which "John" has, is his moral obtuseness as to clearly discriminate between the terms, "mine" and "thine." When pinched by the pangs of hunger, he has no scruples to appropriate a choice ham of meat, or to place his itching digits on loose articles of apparel left to flap on the clothes line in the night time, when nudity was threatening to stare him in the countenance. John is decidedly an epicure in his own peculiar way, and has developed a wonderful fondness for the delicate flesh of chickens. We learn that the Chinese are not over scrupulous about the manner in which they deprive fowls of life. It is stated that they have an unique way of defeathering poultry, to-wit: dipping the unhappy pullet while yet alive into scalding water. We have no Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals here; but some of our humanitarians ought to investigate the matter and discover if Portland celestials are addicted to such cruelty.

OSWEGO CANAL.—We are informed by Captain Kellogg that there are now employed on the canal leading from the Tualatin river to the head of Oswego lake about sixty men. The canal will be about one mile and a half long. It will be of a sufficient width and depth to allow the passage of steamers up and down. The present design is to have the canal completed and effect a junction with the lake and river by the 1st of next September.

FITTED UP.—The little steamer Geo. S. Wright is being very thoroughly overhauled and refitted. The old and worn out boiler has been replaced by a new one from the Oregon Iron Works. Portions of the machinery have been repaired, and additions made, and improvements added to the cabin and the general accommodations of the vessel. She is now receiving a new coat of paint inside and outside, and her hull and decks are being re-caulked.

MISSING.—On Tuesday night, about 9 o'clock, John Ferrari was missed from his store and has not been seen since, nor has anything been heard of him. Any one knowing of his whereabouts will confer a favor on his brother, A. Ferrari. He is about twenty-eight years of age, of dark complexion, and dark whiskers. For some days he had been low spirited and it is feared that he has gone off under a fit of derangement.

A few days since a remarkable petrifaction was found on the farm of Mr. G. Parrish, near Brownsville, in Linn county. It lay ten feet below the surface of the ground in the side of a deep ditch. It resembled a cow's horn, being perfectly smooth and regular on its outside surface, and was hollow. It measured some ten or twelve inches at the butt, and was between nine and ten inches in length.

PORTABLE ENGINES.—Two portable steam engines of respectively of about twenty-five horse power, were brought up on the bark H. W. Almy. These engines came consigned to Messrs. Knapp, Burrell & Co. They are designed to be used in driving threshing machines, and will be transported to some point up the valley.

BONDS FILED.—The following persons filed their bonds yesterday in the Clerk's office: E. W. Ryan, J. P. for Morrison Precinct, bond $1,000; sureties, J. P. Walker and A. G. Walling; C. Crich, J. P. South Portland Precinct, bond $1,000; sureties, D. Monastes and Peter [illegible].

LIGHT HOUSE MATERIALS.—The light house materials intended for the new light house at Cape Foulweather, are being placed on board the H. W. Almy. The material will be shipped to San Francisco, and then re-shipped to the Cape, where it will be discharged in lighters.

ACQUITTED.—John C. Emerick, accused of the murder of a man named Mounts, in Wasco county, was tried at the present term of Circuit Court for that county, at the Dalles, this week, and acquitted by the jury. John F. Caples, Esq., of this city, was counsel for the defense.

DIED.—News reached this city yesterday of the death, in San Francisco on the 6th inst., of [illegible] Fuller, well known in this city. Mr. Fuller, for a number of years past, was connected with Wells, Fargo & Co's office in Portland. His disease was consumption.

FOR DAMAGES.—The case of William Price vs. O. & C. R. R., for $20,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff falling from a construction train, was on trial in the Circuit Court yesterday. Late in the evening it was submitted to the jury.

MEETING AT THE ARMORY.—The General Committee to make arrangements to celebrate the Fourth of July, met last evening at the Armory Hall.

A committee consisting of Messrs. A. B. Richardson, Geo. V. James and E. Corbett were appointed on Carriages and Reception.

The Committee on Finances reported that they had collected the sum of $514 in the First Ward, and that enough had been pledged to increase that sum to $1,000. In the Second Ward $800 had been collected, with enough pledged to nearly increase that sum to $1,000. Owing to business engagements no efforts had been made to collect any money in the Third Ward.

It was suggested that an invitation be extended to the different trades and professions to join in and participate in the parade.

The Committee on grounds reported that they had decided on Strawberry Point as the most suitable place to hold the exercises of the day.

The same committee reported that the most desirable place for the exhibition of the fire works would be on South Park street, in front of the residence of the Hon. D. Logan.

It was moved and carried that a committee of three persons from East Portland, be added to the General Committee. The Chairman appointed as such Committee, D. Rafferty, Esq., C. H. Meussdorffer, and W. T. B. Nicholson.

It was also moved that this committee be authorized to appoint a sub committee to operate in conjunction with them in soliciting subscriptions and in making any other necessary arrangements.

On motion the committee adjourned until next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

GROUND SELECTED.—The grounds selected by the Committee, on which the exercises of the coming celebration are to be held, are situated in the northern portion of the city, at the end of Park street. The spot is designated as "Strawberry Point." The site is a most eligible one, and could not have been better or more properly chosen. It is sheltered from the sun overhead by the spreading boughs of a beautiful grove of oak trees, and is accessible to the breezes which sweep up the river. Seats will be provided sufficient to accommodate a vast crowd, and music stands, etc., will be timely erected. The Committee have evinced good taste and judgment in the selection of the grounds, as the success of the exercises depends in a great measure on having a pleasant locality.

S. S. PICNIC.—The grand Sunday School picnic to be given to Cornelius to-day, promises to be a most pleasant occasion. All that requires to insure the success of the affair is good weather. The cars will stop on the way out, at the Baptist Church, at 8 o'clock A. M., for a few minutes, to allow those who desire to join in the excursion, to get on board. The train will not stop at the switch near the Fourth street bridge. We advise all to attend, should the weather prove propitious. Ample accommodations have been provided for all who may wish to go. Ten platform cars with seats, etc., have been placed at the disposal of the excursionists.

PERSONAL.—We clip the following complimentary notice of one of our city ministers, from the British Colonist of Victoria: "Rev. Mr. Izer, of Portland, Oregon, preached a powerful sermon on Sunday evening, at the Wesleyan Methodist Church, which appeared to have a marked effect upon his hearers. Mr. Izer (who is only 24 years of age) is pastor of a leading Methodist Church Congregation at Portland, where he is greatly beloved and respected."

ORATOR OF THE DAY.—The General Committee have made efforts to secure, as the Orator of the Day at the coming celebration of the Fourth, Judge Rice. That gentleman being now in Philadelphia, he cannot be secured. We learn that an effort is being made to procure the Hon. John S. Felton, of San Francisco, as the orator of the occasion. Mr. Felton is one of the most eloquent and able speakers on the coast.

NEW TRACK.—The cars on the O. & C. R. R. are runing over the new track which diverges from the old route north of the car shops, and passes east of the residence of Jas. B. Stephens. The cars can now run at any stage of the water. The low land at the end of the trestle work to a point beyond V street, has been raised by earth from the bluff to a height of ten or twelve feet.

COUNCILMAN.—Captain J. H. Fisk has, at the request of many Republicans, consented to become a candidate for Councilman from the First Ward, to be voted for at the city election on next Monday. Mr. Fisk is a well known citizen and property-holder of the city, and is a gentleman well qualified to represent the people of that ward in the City Council.

FREIGHT.—Freight as follows was received by last evening's train: 4 wagons; 20 head horses; 835 lbs. merchandise; 915 lbs. eggs; 25 lbs. butter; 8,067 lbs. wool; 425 lbs. furs; 306 lbs. chickens; 986 dry and green hides; 11 cars flour; 99 deer skins; 2,574 lbs. dried apples; 11,465 bacon; 11 cars wheat.

INVITED.—By notice, seen elsewhere, the different trades and professions are invited to participate in the coming celebration of the Anniversary of Independence. Those so desiring, are requested to report at once to the Marshal, Al. Zieber, so that places may be assigned them in the procession.

PUBLIC EXAMINATION.—The Public Examination of the Bishop Scott Grammar School will be held on Monday and Tuesday of next week, from 9 to 12 and from 1 to 3 of each day. Parents, patrons and friends of the school generally are cordially invited to attend.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—A moonlight excursion and festival will be given on Wednesday evening, 19th inst. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Congregational Church in Holladay's Addition, East Portland. Price 25 cents for the trip.

SALMON.—It is said there is a greater run of salmon this season than ever before known. The traps are so overrun that great numbers are thrown away, the canning and salting works not having capacity to keep up with the catch.

NEW PASTOR.—Rev. A. R. Medburry, the new pastor of the First Baptist Church in this city, is among the passengers on board the John L. Stephens. Mr. M. will enter upon the duties of the pastorate about the first of next month.

TO CLOSE.—After the performance at the Oro Fino Theater this evening that place of amusement will temporarily close until the arrival of the celebrated Vivian, who is expected on the next steamer from San Francisco.

INDICTED.—The grand jury presented two true bills yesterday against William and Maggie Marshall. They were indicted for grand larceny. On motion of the District Attorney Marshall's bail was reduced to $200.

MATINEE.—The Waldron Troupe will give a matinee performance at the theater this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Chas. Reade's dramatization of Tennyson's poem of "Dora" will be performed.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The pastor, Dr. Lindsley, will officiate to-morrow, both morning and evening. Gentlemen will be at the doors to conduct strangers and visitors to seats.

IRON DOORS.—The bark H. W. Almy brought up forty-seven cell-doors. They will be forwarded at once to Salem to the Superintendent of the State Penitentiary.

SHIP "FORWARD."—A vessel is reported to be in the river which from her appearances is supposed to be the ship Forward, from China.

THIS EVENING.—Tennyson's great poem of "Dora," will be produced for the last time at Oro Fino Theater this evening.

DUE.—The steamship John L. Stephens will be due at this port this evening from San Francisco.

FRIDAY, June 14, 1872.

CIRCUIT COURT—UPTON, J.

William Price vs O. & C. R. R.; suit for damages; cause on trial.

Samuel Sherlock vs John Clark; demurrer to answer sustained.

W. W. Chapman vs George W. Vaughn; Messrs. Ballinger and Burmester associated with Shattuck and Killen as attorneys in this cause.

George W. Vaughn vs J. P. O. Lownsdale, decree for defendant.

David W. Frary vs Jacob Wheeler and others; mandate from Supreme Court; cause referred to S. Panceyor to take evidence and report the same.

Grand Jury presented two bills of indictment.

State of Oregon vs. Jacob Krusthaler; Jury found "Not a true bill herein;" defendant discharged, and bondsmen exonerated.

Grand Jury presented one bill of indictment.

William Price vs O. & C. R. R.; cause submitted to jury.

AMUSEMENTS.

MONTGOMERY GUARD.—The Montgomery Guard will hold their first annual picnic at the East Portland Park to-morrow. The grounds will be opened at 10 o'clock A. M. Good music has been provided for the occasion. Dancing, racing, etc., will be the order of the day. The following prizes will be offered to those who excel in the different exercises:

Ladies' race—A canary bird, presented by W. J. Tennant.

Sack race—One dozen photographs, to be presented by Jos. Buchtel.

The best three jumps—A pair of gold sleeve buttons, presented by B. L. Stone.

Tossing a stone—A beautiful album, presented by S. J. McCormick.

Climbing a greased pole—A fine silk vest, presented by Fishel & Roberts.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Ho! for Cornelius.

Montgomery Guard picnic to-morrow.

Dust, dust—ankle deep on the back streets.

Preparations for the Fourth of July celebration are progressing favorably.

There will be a large crowd of people of all ages assembled at the corner of Fourth and Stark street this morning with a view of "excurting" to Cornelius.

FIRE.—At half past one o'clock this morning the bells sounded a loud and long alarm of fire. In a very few minutes the Fire Department were at the scene of the conflagration—Janion & Rhodes' wholesale house, from the upper story of which heavy volumes of flame were issuing. In fifteen minutes the fire was under control, and as we go to press the engines are on the way home. The lateness of the hour precludes the possibility of ascertaining the amount of damage.

Every Lady who wants a sweet breath should use Lyon's Tooth Tablets daily.

Sudden Changes in the weather are productive of Throat Diseases, Coughs and Colds. There is no more effectual relief to be found, than in the use of "Brown's Bronchial Troches."

BRANCHING OUT.—Persons living in the southern end of the city have certainly observed an innovation at 145 First street, between Yamhill and Taylor. This change has been made by Quinn, the well known dealer in Fish, Game and Poultry, who opened the stand as a branch establishment, where at all times full supplies of everything in his particular line can be found. At the old stand—Washington street between First and Second—the usual supply of Fish, Game and Poultry can be had at any time. Orders left at either place will be promptly filled.

INFORMATION.—When one purchases an article it invariably pays to spend time and take a little trouble to find the best place to buy. It is both an expensive and in the end an annoying practice to buy at the first place one comes to. But the reader can save much trouble, perhaps, when he is informed that Jos. Kohn & Co., 91 Front street, sell no Clothing or Furnishing Goods that are not what they represent them to be. Those who spare a few minutes at this house and receive full satisfaction.

HOTELS, RESTAURANTS AND FAMILIES desiring the freshest Salmon, Clams and other Fish, should remember Oatman & Clark's New Market, Front street, between A and B streets, where they keep only the best.

TONIGHT, before going home, step into that well known Clothing house of J. J. O'Neil & Co. and leave your order for a suit of summer clothing, and, depend upon it, entire satisfaction will be given. While there, examine their excellent stock of furnishing goods. The prices are so low that no persons need trouble themselves about calling elsewhere for better bargains. Don't pass 95 First street when you have occasion to buy anything in their line. O'Neil & Co. will not be undersold by any house in town.

THE UMATILLA HOUSE at The Dalles is now completed and furnished in every respect unsurpassed. The office is the most cheerful and pleasant in the State, and the dining hall is unequaled. The rooms are all newly furnished. The house has twelve suites of rooms with stoves in them for families. The new house stands much higher than the old one. The ceilings are four feet higher, which adds greatly to the cheerfulness of the rooms. The table is kept in a style to correspond fully with the appointments.

A PERFECT FIT.—At the emporium of fashion of Fishel & Roberts a cutter from New York City has arrived and is prepared to measure those desirous of presenting themselves in the latest style. As this firm has a fine assortment of cloths, and one of the best cutters on the coast, the purchaser can be assured everything that is desirable to make a suit complete in every detail. When you conclude to buy clothing or furnishing goods, remember the southwest corner of Washington and First streets.

Columbian Engine Company No 3.—Drill this (Saturday) evening, June 15th.

Causeless Depression.

This expression is often used, but it is manifestly absurd. Gloom and melancholy are not spontaneous. They are unnatural mental conditions, and usually have corresponding causes. If there is no apparent reason for despondency, it is a symptom of physical disease. In nine cases out of ten the stomach, the liver and the bowels are responsible for the cloud which rests upon the brain. In all such cases immediate and permanent relief may be obtained by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the digestive organs are weak an invigorant is necessary. If the liver is disordered an alterative is required; if the bowels are constipated or irregular, a gentle aperient is needed. In that famous Vegetable remedy these three medicinal properties are commingled with several others of a scarcely less important character, and hence it speedily cures every species of hypochondria arising from material causes, by removing the causes themselves.

In the summer, when disorders of the stomach and bowels, bilious complaints, and all diseases which affect the assimilating and secretive organs are especially prevalent, the importance of having this invaluable tonic, alterative and corrective in every dwelling, and within the reach of all who travel by land or water, cannot be over-estimated. As it is a staple article throughout the country it would be next to impossible to find a settlement, near or remote, unprovided with a stock of this famous vegetable restorative.

Best and Oldest Family Medicine.—Sanford's Liver Invigorator—A purely vegetable Cathartic and Tonic—for Dyspepsia, Constipation, Debility, Sick-headache, Bilious attacks, and all derangements of Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Ask your Druggist for it. Beware of imitations. 13eow Sdly

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Beautiful Woman.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM gives to the Complexion the Freshness of Youth.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM overcomes the flushed appearance caused by heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes the lady of forty appear but twenty, and so natural and perfect that no person can detect its application. By its use the roughest skin is made to rival the pure radiant texture of youthful beauty. It removes redness, blotches and pimples. It contains nothing that will injure the skin in the least.

MAGNOLIA BALM is used by all fashionable ladies in New York, London and Paris. It costs only 75 cents per Bottle, and is sold by all Druggists and Perfumers.

PROSPECTUS.

THE THROUGH LINE!

A RAILROAD JOURNAL TO BE PUBLISHED weekly, in the city of Portland, Oregon, devoted to the interests of railroads and kindred subjects, and especially to the success of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad.

In the interest [illegible] we have already made one campaign [illegible] efforts have been crowned with a fair measure of success. It is now a fixed fact, recognized by the Government, and becoming attractive to [illegible] and Finance.

With the advent of this prospectus we enter upon a second campaign, in which the friends of the great work will find it [illegible] to be united, firm and persistent.

We shall early discuss the subject of legitimate and reasonable State aid to the prosecution of the work, and as an endorsement of the importance of this deservedly popular enterprise.

Preparatory to a renewal of our efforts at the next session of Congress, we shall fully discuss the national and local importance of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, and through the instrumentality of The Through Line familiarize members of Congress and the American public with the subject in all its bearings. The discussion will cover the whole ground, and no fact or matter which may be deemed of importance will be allowed to pass unnoticed.

The successful completion of the railroads embraced in the system of the Pacific Northwest, we shall give our hearty support in all that is fair and just, and especially shall we endeavor to keep alive and make useful that public sentiment in Oregon everywhere manifested in behalf of the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad.

Our knowledge of the several roads embraced in this system, their origin and progress, the various laws that have been passed concerning them, and the country through which they pass, will enable us to give, from time to time, to the American and European reader reliable and important information connected therewith.

Our friends should be especially vigilant in getting subscribers and giving The Through Line a wide circulation. We have made arrangements [illegible] competent assistant in the Editorial Department. It will be a weekly [illegible] paper, and the first number will be issued on or about the 20th of June, and [illegible] subscription $2 50 per annum.

Red Riding-Hood.

Cool and dark the shadows glimmered
In the gloomy, grim old wood,
Where, with careless lingering footsteps,
Wandered fair Red Riding-hood.

Dark the shadows grew and dimmer,
While the gray wolf by her side
Promised—low and treacherous pleading—
That no harm should her betide.

But her pulses swift beat strangely,
Fluttered fast her trusting heart,
Yet she told him all her errand
Ere at last they turned to part.

Well we know the tragic ending
Of the simple and old tale,
How, for once in fairy stories
Evil projects did not fail.

Not all wolves are dead and buried,
Nor all maidens wiser grown,
Many hearts still flutter strangely
At a specious pleading tone;

Therefore, linger not to listen
When your path by wolves is crossed,
Be you deaf unto the pleading—
She who hesitates is lost.

PICKINGS.

Florida clergymen speak against the habit of church members carrying revolvers.

Berlin has a hotel on the American plan curly haired, gentlemanly, and urbane clerk, with diamond pin and all.

The entire continent of North America, according to Sir Charles Lyell, will be washed into the ocean in 1,500,000 years.

A resident of Brooklyn was picked up drunk in the streets of New York recently, with $24,500 loose change in his pockets.

There is a wine cask in the cellars of the Kelly's Island (Ohio) Wine Company that contains 4,000 gallons of wine. It was carried to the island in sections.

"We will meet in heaven, husband, dear," is the affectionate epitaph which an Ohio woman has had inscribed upon the tomb stones of each of three departed husbands. Trouble ahead in that family, certain.

The analytical juryman has now made his appearance in Baltimore. The reduction of a wife to mince-meat by a jealous husband has inspired him to find a verdict that "the murdered woman was killed by her husband, in a fit of jealousy, superinduced by her acquaintance with Mr. Smith."

Greek Convicts Shipped to the United States.

From the Ancona Giornale.

Nine Greek criminals of the worst description, among them four highway robbers and two murderers, have recently been liberated by a decree of the Greek Minister of Justice from the Penal Colony, on the Island of Corfu, on condition of their emigrating to the United States, and they are now on their way to this country. On the 24th of April they were taken in chains from the stone quarries of Corfu, on board the Italian bark Agamemnon, which was to sail two days afterward for Falmouth, in England, and after discharging part of her cargo at that port, for New Orleans. Their names and the crimes of which they were convicted are as follows: Cleomenes Papacousi, a prominent member of the gang of highway robbers that plundered the English tourists at Marathon, sentenced to twenty-five years of hard labor; Aristos Dicastri, 32 years old, a native of Albania, convicted of murdering two persons at Zenphi, and sentenced to the stone quarries for life; Pietros Saufros, a Sicilian, convicted of piracy, and sentenced to 16 years' hard labor; Lalos Castropolos, an Athenian chief, sentenced to 8 years hard labor; Theodore Pol a, a murderer, sentenced for life; Marcos Dacordato, a thief, sentenced to 6 years hard labor; Mandos Bithuros, Theobulos Percasuros and Philippus Evandrinus, highway robbers, sentenced to the stone quarries for 15, 20 and 30 years. Quite a concourse of people assembled as these convicts, who were heavily ironed, were driven by their keepers through Corfu and taken to the wharf, whence they were conveyed in a boat on board the Agamemnon.

The Inter-Ocean says: "The Courier-Journal significantly remarks, 'the gray-jacket who is not for Horace Greeley deserves a straight-jacket.' This is according to the eternal fitness of things. Everything points to a straight party fight. Mr. Greeley, one of the oldest [illegible] of the country; the man who insulted the loyal sentiment of the North and the South alike, by becoming bail for the chief instigator and leader of the rebellion, Jeff. Davis; a traitor to the principle of protection to American industry, which he has made the corner-stone of his political faith, and false to the party of freedom, is a fit representative of the party of reaction. 'Gray-jackets' will vote for him, rebels will vote for him, Ku-Klux will vote for him, the men who starved and murdered Union prisoners will vote for him, the man who hauled down the American flag from Fort Sumter will vote for him. But the men who fought in the Union army will not vote for him, men whose fathers, sons and brothers gave up their lives in defense of liberty and the Republic will not vote for him; all bad Democrats will vote for him, but all Republicans will vote against him."

It seems that Greeley's alleged promise to make Horatio Seymour Secretary of State in his Cabinet is no joke after all, the information having been given to the World from the Liberal Republican headquarters in New York. The simple-minded, honest old farmer who, of course, knows nothing of political intrigue, has agreed to make this appointment and also to support the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York, and also the Congressional nominees on the Democratic ticket in that State. With any other candidate in the position of Mr. Greeley, it might be suspected that these promises were made to influence the action of the Baltimore Convention and secure Democratic support, but of course this honest, guileless old woodchopper would never dream of deliberately resorting to means that smack so much of the wire-pulling politician. Such child-like simplicity must have its effect in purifying the "filthy pool." Truly, the millenium must be near at hand.

The two Tribunes, of New York and Chicago, are beginning to realize the cost of the infamous apostacy in which they are now running a break-neck race. They are both being rapidly stripped of their circulation by the tempest of Republican indignation evoked by their unexampled treachery to the Republican cause. The New York Times prints columns of letters daily in proof of the general repudiation of the Tribune by its Republican subscribers, while the Chicago Inter-Ocean has been for weeks publishing similar daily columns of evidence of the rapidity with which the old subscribers of the Tribune are transferring their subscriptions to the Inter-Ocean. The Tribune's defection is the Inter-Ocean's opportunity, and its result will unquestionably be to build up the Inter-Ocean into the leading and most influential and prosperous newspaper in Chicago, while the old pre-eminence of the Tribune is destined to be permanently overthrown.

It is now declared by Whitlaw Reid that if the Baltimore Convention shall refuse to accept Greeley as the Democratic candidate, he will withdraw his candidacy, and support Grant. This declaration has about it every appearance of genuineness, and is in accordance with Mr. Greeley's own announcement a few days before the Cincinnati meeting. It appears then, after all, that Grant is Greeley's second choice. If Greeley cannot be elected he is satisfied with Grant. And his only reason for opposing Grant is the hope that Greeley may be elected. If the Democratic Convention shall endorse Greeley, then General Grant is a villain and ought not to be elected. If that Convention should fail to endorse Greeley, then Grant is a good man and ought by all means to be elected. That is the logic of Mr. Greeley's attitude before the Baltimore Convention.

From the correspondence of impartial observers at Washington it appears that the Democratic party as there represented, is in the fix of the ass between two bundles of hay. A majority of the Democratic representatives, it is said, favor the nomination of Greeley at Baltimore to save the party from a split, while they are pretty sure that a bolt of the minority will follow any such action. The party seems bound to go to pieces, whatever course is taken.

Victor Hugo's new book, "L'Annee Terrible," is a series of powerful poems on the principal events which occurred between the capitulation of Sedan and the insurrection of the Commune. It is an ardent and powerful appeal to the patriotism and best sentiments of his countrymen, and quite sustains the reputation gained by "Les Chatiments," his ablest and most brilliant book. It is one of the triumphs of French modern literature.

A FAILURE.—The San Francisco Chronicle of the 8th inst., has the following: "As we suspected, the attempt of Mrs. Doctress Sawtelle to arouse public interest in her woman's emigration scheme has failed. Just ten persons assembled to hear her lecture on the subject. Doubtless, it would be a good thing if we had more women on the Pacific Coast, but Mrs. Sawtelle's scheme of getting them here to settle upon and cultivate Government lands is visionary and impracticable. If Mrs. Sawtelle will go to New York and induce five hundred first-class cooks and house servants to come here and work for moderate wages she will earn the everlasting gratitude of the people, but let her drop her Utopian ideas of female settlement on public lands. The idea is absurd."

A correspondent of the Springfield Republican quotes Mr. Dana as saying that journalism is the most fascinating of all professions. We agree to this statement with an amendment. There is only one employment in the world more agreeable than to edit a newspaper; and that is, not to edit it.

623 KEARNY STREET, [illegible] San Francisco. E[illegible] for the treatment of Sexual and [illegible] Diseases, such as [illegible] Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Se[illegible] Impotency, etc. Skin Disea[illegible] [illegible]

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of [illegible] has returned from visiting the principal [illegible] Europe, and has resumed practice at his [illegible] Kearny street, corner of Commercial, where his old patients and those [illegible] may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor [illegible] ing out new remedies, and has [illegible] facilities for the alleviation of [illegible]

Horrible Disease.

How many thousands of poor [illegible] male, are there who are suffering [illegible] ence from the effects of secret [illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at their [illegible] ted and disfigured faces and their broken [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this way, [illegible] sands suffer until death closes the scene. [illegible] guardians, friends, attend to those who are [illegible] any of these horrible, life-destroying [illegible] they are cured for and cured before it be too late, [illegible] them immediately to DR. GIBBON, a ph[illegible] made private diseases his special study for [illegible] is certain to cure the most inveterate case, [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is impo[illegible] are afflicted, or to those who are [illegible] of their friends, to be careful of the [illegible] doctors who infest all cities, publ[illegible] ing all diseases in a few days, [illegible] by using the names of eminent phy[illegible] and other places. Be therefore careful [illegible] inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of [illegible] tans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequences of [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost [illegible] producing with unerring certainty, the [illegible] morbid symptoms, unless combatted by [illegible] measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots [illegible] eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] rattling of leaves and rustling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] proaching strangers, a dislike to form new [illegible] disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] pimples and various eruptions about [illegible] tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, [illegible] monomania and frequent insanity. If [illegible] tained, should apply immediately, either in [illegible] letter, and have a cure effected by his new [illegible] mode of treating this disease, which never [illegible] ing a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will [illegible] dred Dollars to any person who will prove [illegible] is the equal of [illegible] the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them, [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give [illegible] patient a written instrument, binding himself [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT [illegible] by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, [illegible] loms, length of time the disease has continued, [illegible] medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with [illegible] directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, [illegible] letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be [illegible] of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe [illegible] cions of the self-styled doctors, whose [illegible] found in the daily and weekly newspapers [illegible] and other places, are tradesmen [illegible] lary too work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intellig[illegible] etc. The only way to avoid imposition [illegible] inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and [illegible] you many regrets; for, as advertising [illegible] cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in [illegible] any of them until you know who and what [illegible] Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting [illegible] titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his [illegible] office by evidence that the proposer is [illegible]
